

The age of superannuation of Government Servants - Review of cases.

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA
General Administration Department,
Circular No. 1070-D,
Sachivalaya, Bombay-32-BR.
Dated the 16th December, 1970.

Circular:

Government has assumed powers and framed the necessary rules to retire compulsorily, before their attaining the age of superannuation, Government servants whose record of work and health are considered unsatisfactory or below average plus as laid down in Government Circular, General Administration Department, No. SRV-1069-D, dated the 30th September, 1969. It has been decided that the enforcement of these powers should be as follows :-

(a) There will be two review, by the Special Review Committees of the cases of all Class-I and Class-II Government servants; the first being before or about the time they attain the age of 50 and the second before or about the time they attain the age of 55. There will be only one review of Class-III Government servants before or about time they attain the age of 55.

(b) A Government servant who is cleared for continuance in service beyond the age of 50 by Government after considering the recommendation of the Special Review Committee will normally, continue in service till he attains the age of 55. Similarly, a Government servant who is cleared for continuance in service beyond the age of 55 by Government after considering the recommendation of the Special Review Committee, will normally continue in service till he superannuates at the age of 58 years.

However, notwithstanding the clearance at the ages of 50 or 55, cases of Class I and Class-II & Class III Government Servants whose subsequent confidential reports are unsatisfactory, or whose work shows marked deterioration, or who are involved in a departmental enquiry of a serious nature; should be referred by the Departments, concerned for review to the Special Review Committees which will take necessary action in accordance with the approved criteria and procedure.
